

Colorectal Cancer Summit 2018

Friday 16 March, 9.00am – 1.00pm

RACV Club, 501 Bourke Street, Melbourne

Facilitators: Veronica Strachan & Lesley Thornton
TrueDialogue.com.au

Victorian Tumour Summits facilitate state-wide dialogue about unwarranted variations in cancer care and outcomes.

The summit outcome is for clinicians and cancer care professionals to prioritise variations, and take action on those they can influence and improve.

Time	Item
8.30am	REGISTRATIONS OPEN (tea and coffee on arrival)
9.00am	Introductions – Veronica Strachan Welcome – Prof Robert Thomas, Chair Cancer Australia's Advisory Council
9.15am	Progress Update on CRC Summit 2014: From recommendations to action Ms Kathryn Whitfield Assistant Director Cancer Strategy & Development Department of Health and Human Services.
9.40am	Colorectal Cancer Care in Victoria (2011-2015): Revisiting the data Mr Brian Hodgkins, Colorectal Surgeon Monash Health
10.15am	Identifying Opportunities for Improving the Unwarranted Variations (the what) Facilitated group work
11.00am	MORNING TEA
11.15am	Reducing Unwarranted Variation – What can we do and do now? (the how) Facilitated group work
12.00pm	Examples of Quality Improvement in Colorectal Cancer Care Showcase clinician led improvement projects Identifying Possibilities for Individual/Local Action – What matters to you? Facilitated group work
12.45pm	Summary of the Day and Close Dr Geoff Chong, Medical Oncologist Austin Health & Ballarat Base Hospital
1.00pm	LUNCH