

Head and Neck Cancers 2018 Summit September Update

@vtsummit

VTSummit

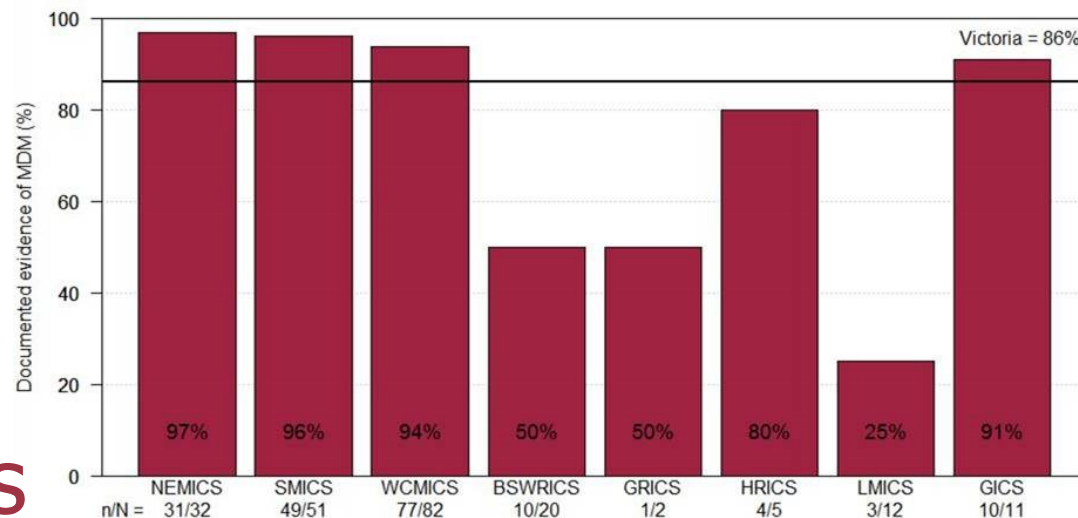

The Head and Neck Cancers Optimal Care Pathway aims to improve patient outcomes by facilitating consistent cancer care based on a standardised pathway of care

What does the data say about head & neck cancers in Victoria?

37% of patients started adjuvant therapy within 6 weeks of surgery

Data source: VCR, VAED VRMDS 2012-2016

H&N Cancers Summit
Friday 12th October
8.30am-1pm
RACV City Club,
Melbourne
Register here:
<bit.ly/2QOW4Sy>

Data source: Cancer Services Performance Indicators audit 2017

Prevalence of malnutrition is

31%

Data source: Malnutrition in Victorian Cancer Services Point Prevalence Study 2016, n = 109

Head and Neck Cancers 2018 Summit September Update

@vtsummit

VTSummit

Incidence of oropharynx & base of tongue cancers is increasing

Data source: VCR 2008-2016

What other data will be presented?

Referral pathways

Treatment pathways

Timeliness of care

Survival by treatment type

Have a question? Contact
Victorian Tumour Summits
on (03) 9496 3322
<Claire.Porter@austin.org.au>

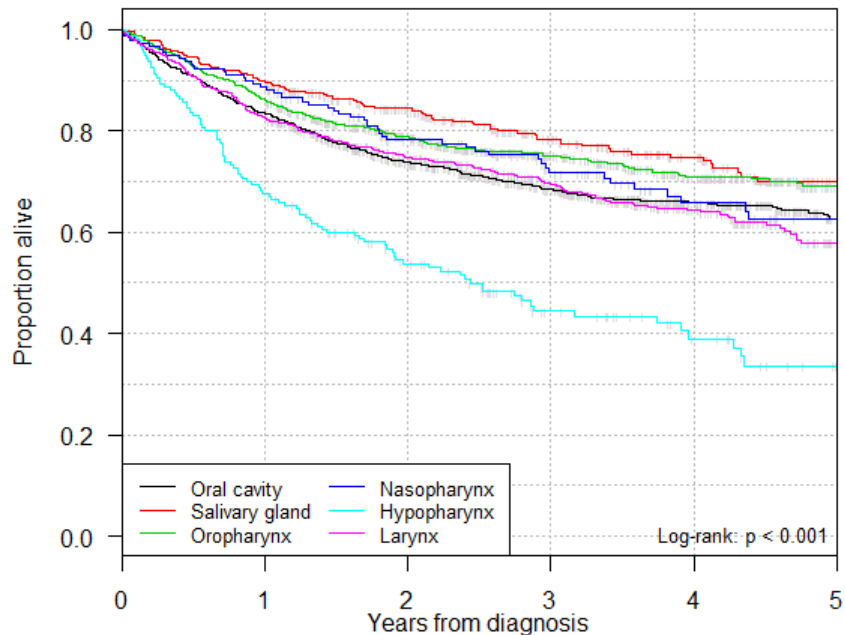

Median age
at diagnosis

65

71% of patients are
MALE

Data source: VCR 2012-2016, n = 3823

Patients with cancer of the hypopharynx have poorer survival

Data source: VCR 2012-2016

Incidence of head & neck cancers is decreasing

Data source: <vcrdata.cancervic.org.au>

